BRIEF HISTORY OF HO TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY

Ho Technical University started as a Technical Institute in 1968 with the primary objective of providing pre-technical education. By 1972, the Institute upgraded its courses, resulting in the expansion of the pre-technical programmes into courses in Engineering and Vocational fields such as Basic Engineering, Agricultural and Mechanical Engineering, Building Technology, Fashion, Hospitality Management and Business Education.

In 1986, the Institute became a Polytechnic. It however continued to operate as second cycle institution, until 1993 when the Polytechnic was upgraded to a fully-fledged tertiary institution by the enactment of PNDC Law 321 and charged with the responsibility of training students in the technical and vocational skills to the Higher National Diploma [HND] level.

Subsequently, in 2007, Polytechnics were given the mandate by the Polytechnics Act 745, to award their own degrees to the highest level.

The passage of the Technical Universities Act 2016 (Act 922), as amended by Act 2018 (Act 974), gave Ho Technical University the mandate to award degrees, diplomas, certificates and other qualifications to the highest level in Engineering, Science and Technology based disciplines, Technical and Vocational Education and Training, Applied Arts and related disciplines.

FOREWORD

The 24th Congregation provides the opportunity to celebrate young men and women who have acquired the requisite hands-on skills and knowledge to create jobs and contribute to the sustainable development of Ghana and beyond. The diligence, proficiency, aptitude, and excellence demonstrated by these graduands during the training period is commendable.

The University made several strides during the academic year. The creation of smart classrooms, retooling of the Octagon computer laboratory (Phase I) and creation of additional laboratories among others during the period are indicative of our commitment towards effective teaching, learning and research in the University.

The quality of our faculty and staff experiences continuous growth as we strive to improve in our respective fields. To this end, the University Council promoted two (2) Senior Lecturers namely Prof. Kenneth Egbadzor and Prof. Emmanuel S. Letsyo, to the grade of Associate Professor in their respective Departments. Similarly, two (2) Senior Assistant Registrars namely Mr. Michael T.K. Todoko and Mr. Edem K. Honu were also promoted to the rank of Deputy Registrar in the Office of the Registrar. Further, the University continued with its human capacity development by granting study leave and various forms of sponsorship to several Faculty and Staff to pursue further studies in various institutions in Ghana and other parts of the world.

To demonstrate the preparedness of our students, the University provides students, exposure in areas such as competitions both at local and international levels. It is noteworthy that, we excelled in a number of them during the academic year. This includes the Joy Prime Big Chef Tertiary Cooking Competition and the 2023 StartUp Africa Pitch & Innovation Competition.

To strengthen governing structures, policy documents were approved by the Governing Council University. A send-off was also organised by Management to honour forty (40) members of the staff who retired between 2019 and June 2023, in recognition of their exceptional services to the University.

Despite our peculiar challenges as a Technical University in transition, it is instructive to reiterate our commitment to the creation of an enabling environment and support systems that ensure our students and graduates continue to compare favourably with their counterparts locally and globally. Management is committed to providing the necessary resources to ensure that students have excellent experiences and the desired results at the end of their studies.

I must admit that the significant growth of the University would not have been possible without the support of the Chairman and Members of the Governing Council, Management and Academic Board, Ministry of Education, Regulatory Bodies, Ghana Education Trust Fund, Volta Regional Coordinating Council, partners, sponsors, faculty, staff, students, alumni and the entire University Community for which I extend my sincerest gratitude.

Congratulations to all our Graduands!

Adanu Nazu Kekeli!

We wish to congratulate Mr. Bismark Etonam Mensah for this accomplishment.

Winners of the 2023 ATUPA-StartUpAfrica Pitch & Innovation Competition

Students of the University participated in the StartUpAfrica Pitch & Innovation Competition which was held on the sidelines of the 2023 ATUPA International Conference and Exhibition held in Accra. Three (3) teams from HTU qualified for the semi-final stage of the competition with HTU emerging as winners with the JB Tech bill-sharing metre for households. This lends credence to the fact that the University is producing human capital with the requisite skills and competencies for the development of local and global economy.

CONCERNS/CHALLENGES

- Indebtedness of Students in the University

The high rate of student debtors in the University has become a matter of grave concern to Management and our Regulators. Following Academic Board's approval, Management is strictly implementing its fee-paying policy to compel students to pay their fees to be eligible to register and sit for end of semester examinations. Students are expected to pay their fees to access student services in the University.

- Delays in completion of GETFund Projects

The delay in completion of GETFund sponsored projects in the University remains a challenge. However, we have been assured by GETFund that the projects would be completed to improve the general infrastructural needs and outlook of the University.

- Absence of a Teaching Hotel

The University urgently needs a 20-Room Teaching Hotel to serve as a laboratory and Centre of Excellence for training of students and other interested stakeholders in our niche and allied areas.

- Inadequate Residential Facilities for Students/Staff

The University needs additional residential facilities for students and staff. We therefore look forward to receiving feasible proposals from prospective investors who are ready to support the University in this regard.

CONCLUSION

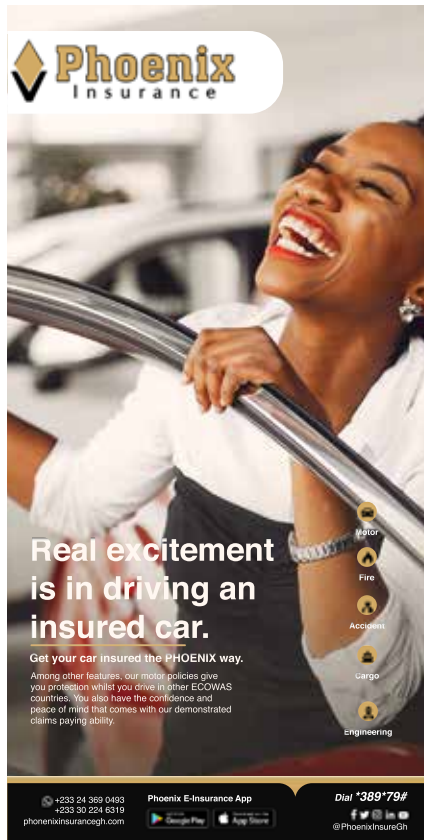

In conclusion, I wish to use this occasion to applaud and appreciate the efforts and support of the Chairman and members of the Governing Council, Management, Deans, Directors & Heads of Department/Section/Unit, and all staff for their continuous support and contributions towards the development and progress of the University. Indeed, HTU is a brand and ought to be cherished and protected by all.

I entreat our graduands to join the HTU Alumni Association to contribute their quota to support the growth and development of the University.

Finally, I wish to entreat all our stakeholders and partners to continue to support the University as we seek to improve our fortunes of becoming a hub of practical education and innovation advancing sustainable global development.

EXIT SURVEY

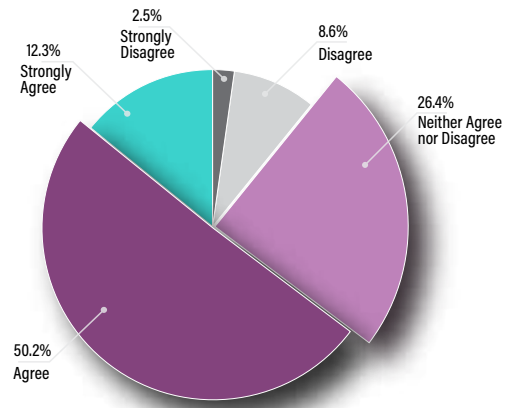

THE UNIVERSITY HAS AN EXCELLENT IMAGE

THE UNIVERSITY RENDERS QUALITY SERVICE

WE HAVE RECEIVED VALUE FOR MONEY

THE UNIVERSITY HAS PROVIDED GOOD LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

It is a privilege and an honour to address you all as the Overall Best Graduating Student at this 24th Congregation.

Reflecting on our journey, it's impossible not to acknowledge the significance of Ho Technical University as the epicenter of technological and practical education in Africa. HTU has not only provided us with academic excellence but has also been a platform for diverse extracurricular activities, fostering an environment of peaceful coexistence, acculturation, interdependence, and respect for universal human rights.

As we embarked on this journey in September 2020, delayed briefly by the global COVID-19 pandemic, the anticipation and joy of attending such a renowned institution were profound. Each of us had unique motivations for choosing HTU, whether it was to continue our high school programmes or embrace new challenges. Today, looking back, I believe our dreams have been fulfilled, and any challenges faced have only contributed to our growth and success.

Our collective experiences at HTU have been an array of memories, from the initial mix of feelings in the fashion block to the eventual sense of belonging and purpose. Through group projects, sleepless nights, and the ebb and flow of challenging courses, we discovered our hidden talents, honed our leadership and teamwork skills, and faced seemingly insurmountable situations with determination.

Fellow graduands, as Albert Einstein, once said "Try not to become a man of success but rather try to become a man of value." Let us use the irreplaceable skills acquired at HTU to create value through innovative and sustainable solutions, and success will naturally follow.

To our successors, every decision matters in shaping your future. In particular, to my successors in the fashion department, let your stress speak through your grades.

Prof. Chairman, as we prepare to step into the next chapter of our lives, gratitude is paramount. I therefore extend our deepest appreciation to the management, faculty, and staff for their dedication in preparing us for this day. Special thanks to the Department of Fashion Design and Textile, especially to Miss Patricia Deti, for her unwavering support and your memorable phrase to us, "yi la tui" – 'go and redo it,' anytime we make a mistake in the sewing lab.

To my family, especially my rock, my mom – Ms. Mary Gah, your love and sacrifices have been the driving force behind my success. To my friends, you've been constant companions through thick and thin, providing joy and laughter, and making this journey more meaningful.

I also acknowledge the mentors, classmates, and staff who played vital roles in our journey, we are grateful for your indelible impact. Above all, we thank God, our constant companion.

As we move forward, dear colleagues, let's not forget the values instilled in us by HTU – leadership, good communication, teamwork, innovation, and adaptability. These values have served us well, and they will continue to guide us.

Class of 2023, congratulations! We made it. HTU, Adanu Nazu Kekeli! Thank you, and May God bless us all.
